Attendance & Truancy

Date	Review Date
November 2015	November 2016

We believe this policy relates to the following legislation:

- Children Act 1989
- Education Act 1996
- Crime and Disorder Act 1998
- Data Protection Act 1998
- Criminal Justice and Courts Services Act 2000
- Education (School Attendance Targets) (England) Regulations 2005
- Education (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2006
- Education (School Attendance Targets) (England) Regulations 2007
- Education (School Attendance Targets) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2010
- Education (Pupil Registration) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2010
- Education (Pupil Registration) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2013
- Education (Penalty Notices) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2013

The following documentation is also related to this policy:

- Advice on School Attendance (DfE)
- Improving Attendance at School (DfE)

We believe that children cannot learn if they are absent from school. Therefore, we aim to ensure that all our children take full advantage of the educational opportunities available to them and to raise standards by promoting regular attendance and punctuality of pupils.

We are committed to providing an education of the highest quality for all our pupils. We believe high attainment depends on good attendance.

We expect all school personnel to support and promote excellent school attendance by acting as role models and to work hard to provide a learning environment in which all pupils are eager to learn, feel valued and enjoy coming to school. School personnel have a responsibility for identifying trends in attendance and punctuality.

Sometimes a pupil's absence or lateness may not be their fault and in these circumstances it is our policy to be supportive of the child and not to make them feel guilty or inadequate. Also, at times we may make allowances for religious beliefs and individual family circumstances.

We believe it is essential to regularly remind parents of the importance of good attendance and its links to pupil attainment. The Education Act 1996 clearly states that the prime responsibility of parents/carers is to ensure that their children attend school regularly.

Boothville Primary School

Truancy is a matter that we treat very seriously as we feel pupils are not only losing valuable learning time but they are putting themselves at serious risk as the school and their parents are not aware of their whereabouts.

We believe it is essential to have a strong working relationship with the Education Entitlement Service which provides support for pupils and their families in order to promote good pupil attendance and to reduce truancy.

We are aware that leave of absence can only be granted to a pupil only in exceptional circumstances. Holidays will not be authorised during term unless there is an extenuating circumstance. Each case will be reviewed individually.

We as a school community have a commitment to promote equality. Therefore, an equality impact assessment has been undertaken and we believe this policy is in line with the Equality Act 2010.

We believe it is essential that this policy clearly identifies and outlines the roles and responsibilities of all those involved in the procedures and arrangements that is connected with this policy.

Aims

- To create a culture of high attendance.
- To demonstrate that good attendance and punctuality is valued by the school.
- To maintain and develop effective communication regarding attendance between home and school.
- To have in place procedures to prevent truancy.

Responsibility for the Policy and Procedure

Role of the Governing Body

The Governing Body will:

- monitor attendance according to gender, age, ethnicity, first language, eligibility for Free School Meals, special educational needs and persistent absentees;
- monitor trends by using data effectively to help strategic planning;
- target intervention and support to those children that have been highlighted as poor attenders;
- agenda attendance and truancy at periodic meetings with school personnel;
- work closely with the Education Entitlement Service;
- have in place a system for parents to report a child's absence;
- report to the Governing Body every term attendance figures and progress to achieving set targets;
- remind parents of their commitment to this policy;
- meet with parents if they have applied for a holiday during school time;
- promote the importance of attendance during collective worship;
- publicise good attendance during assemblies, newsletters and the termly report to the Governing Body;
- award good attendance badges to pupils when they have achieved 100% attendance;
- introduce rewards and incentives to encourage punctuality;
- organise home tuition with the local support services for pupils with long term illness provided they are well enough to undertake the work;
- organise training for school personnel on the use and understanding of attendance codes and authorised and unauthorised attendance;
- improve teaching in order to improve pupil engagement;
- strengthen links with external agencies who engage with and support families;
- provide leadership and vision in respect of equality;
- provide guidance, support and training to all staff especially on bullying and the needs of vulnerable groups;
- monitor the effectiveness of this policy by:
 - monitoring trends and patterns as highlighted in attendance data
 - achieving results above the national average
 - looking at results from parent, pupil and school personnel questionnaires

Role of the School Office Staff

The office personnel are responsible for:

- implementing the policy with the Headteacher;
- monitoring individual and class attendance on a daily basis;
- keeping the Head informed of attendance figures and trends;

Boothville Primary School

- contacting parents regarding concerns about their child's attendance;
- organising meetings between the Headteacher and parents to discuss their child's poor attendance;
- organising meetings between the Headteacher and parents to discuss their child's truancy;
- organising meetings between the Headteacher and parents to discuss their application for a term time holiday;
- compiling attendance data reports for the Head, the Governing Body and the EEO;
- ensuring registers are available and are kept up to date

Role of the First Day Contact Supervisor

The First Day Contact Supervisor is responsible for:

- contacting parents if they have not reported their child's absence by 10.00am;
- sending a letter if no contact is made;
- continuing to contact the parents throughout the day until contact is made;
- informing the Head of trends in absence

Role of the Education Entitlement Service

The Education Entitlement Service will:

- appoint education entitlement officers (EEO) who will promote good attendance in schools;
- establish effective working relationships with schools;
- ensure pupils attend school regularly;
- investigate reasons for a pupil's poor attendance;
- provide support and counselling for children and their families;
- work with disaffected pupils;
- work with pupils who may be excluded;
- find alternative educational provision for excluded pupils;

Role of School Personnel

School personnel will:

- comply with and implement this policy;
- be aware of all other linked policies;
- set an example of punctuality and good attendance;
- ensure that registers are taken at the appropriate times and are accurate and up to date;
- be responsible for identifying trends in attendance and punctuality by monitoring class and individual attendance patterns;
- inform the school office of any concerns about attendance or suspected truancy;
- emphasise the importance of punctuality and good attendance with pupils and parents;
- discuss individual pupil attendance at parent-teacher consultations

Role of Parents

Parents are responsible for:

- complying with this policy;
- ensuring that their children are punctual and know the importance of good attendance;
- informing the school on the first day of absence;
- informing the school of any changes to their contact details;
- collecting their children on time
- taking part in periodic surveys conducted by the school;
- not taking holidays in term time;
- supporting the school Code of Conduct and guidance necessary to ensure smooth running of the school

Role of the Local Authority

The Local Authority may prosecute a parent for not ensuring their child attends school regularly or may issue or apply for:

- Penalty Notice
- Education Supervision Order
- Parenting Order
- School Attendance Order

The Local Authority should:

- provide training on the understanding and analysing attendance data and clear guidance on the correct use of attendance codes
- analyse attendance patterns in order to improve pupil attendance especially those from vulnerable groups
- make schools more aware of national priorities, initiatives and available grants in order to improve pupil attendance
- try to identify why there is a variation in the use of attendance codes between schools
- share good practice within the Local Authority and should identify and explore good practice in other Local Authorities

Role of Pupils

Pupils are responsible for:

- being aware of the school attendance and truancy policy;
- arriving at school on time;
- knowing the value of good attendance;
- knowing the seriousness of truancy, attending classes during the school day and not playing truant;
- accepting sanctions if they are caught playing truant;

Boothville Primary School

- returning to school after a period of illness;
- support the school Code of Conduct and guidance necessary to ensure the smooth running of the school;
- liaise with the school council;
- take part in questionnaires and surveys

Dealing with Trends in Attendance

When there is a pattern of poor attendance then the following procedure will take place:

- Parents are invited to attend an informal meeting with the Headteacher to explain their child's repeated absence.
- Support will be given if there are underlying reasons for the absence.
- If not, then the situation will be monitored for improvement.
- If there is no improvement then the EEO will take the appropriate action.

Dealing with Lateness

The office personnel monitor lateness and inform:

- the Head of patterns of lateness;
- parents of the school's concerns and arrange a meeting so that the problem can be addressed

Dealing with Truancy

If a pupil is thought to be playing truant then the school will immediately inform:

- the police
- the parent/carer;

All truants will receive:

- sanctions;
- support;
- discussions with the EEO to understand the seriousness of the matter;
- a programme of monitoring and support

The Police must be informed immediately if a pupil leaves school without prior permission.

Absence

Holidays during term time – Holidays will not be authorised and leave of absence is only allowed in exceptional circumstances. Parents are asked to write a letter to the Head Teacher explaining reasons and each case will be judged individually.

Boothville Primary School

Religious Observance – a maximum of three days absence is allowed for religious observance.

Medical, Dental or Hospital Appointments – we encourage these appointments to take place out of school time in order not to disrupt the child's education.

Raising Awareness of this Policy

We will raise awareness of this policy via:

- the School Handbook/Prospectus
- the school website
- the Staff Handbook
- meetings with parents such as introductory, transition, parent-teacher consultations and periodic curriculum workshops
- school events
- meetings with school personnel

Appendix 1

Stage 1

If a pupil is absent from school then a telephone call will be made home to find out why they are absent. Parent will report why the child is unable to attend and the register will be marked accordingly.

If no contact is made then a letter will be sent to the parents. If the parent responds then the register will be marked accordingly. If no response is given then this absence will be marked as unauthorised.

Stage 2

If a pupil is absent for a number of days without notification then the first day response calls will continue. If a pupil is absent for more than 10 days without notification then guidance will be sought from EES.

Any applications for Home Schooling will be directed to the EES.

If a pupil is deemed missing then the EES will be informed.
